HISTORY OF MAYORS & CITY COUNCILS

This database was developed to delineate the election history for the Dallas City Council (1866 to present). The election history was originally compiled by Lee Armstrong and the Office of the City Secretary.

Unfortunately, records are sketchy and sometimes contradictory in the listings of officials during the first 10 years of incorporation. The list covering the first ten years, 1856 to 1866, has been compiled by comparison and combination of information obtained from:

- History of Dallas County by John Henry Brown (1887)
- Mayors of Dallas by John H. Cullom (1917)
- Dallas' First Hundred Years by George H. Santerre (1956)

Listings on all other pages have been compiled from the official City Council Minutes of the City of Dallas.

On February 12, 1872, the Council met to hear an opinion from the Attorney General as to who was entitled to sit as Aldermen: Council Minutes: "....The said opinion of the Attorney General, was then so read; and at the conclusion of which F. M. Ervay and J. R. Davis, recently appointed members of the Board of Aldermen, by the Governor of the State of Texas, respectively resigned their positions as members of such Board; and declined any further action as members of the City Council." At the next meeting, the Mayor and five remaining Aldermen called an election to be held on March 4, 1872 to elect two aldermen for Ward 4 and one alderman for Ward 2, an assessor and collector and a marshall.

The Council, meeting on March 5, 1872, after installing the newly elected members, was then composed of the following:

Mayor: Henry S. Ervay
