WHEREAS, Chapter III, Section 4(e) of the Dallas City Charter provides in part:

If any city councilmember, including the mayor, misses more than 10 percent of the total number of regular meetings held by the city council during any compensation year, then the city councilmember's compensation ... for that year will be reduced proportionately by the number of meetings missed.... Meetings missed by a city councilmember while he or she is on official business of the city and at the direction of the city council will not be counted towards the percentage of meetings missed for which compensation reduction is required... but will be counted as though the member had attended the meetings that are missed while so engaged in city business; and

WHEREAS, Section 4.11(b) of the City Council Rules of Procedure provides that an absence by a councilmember for (1) attending a meeting or conference of a professional organization of or association of municipalities or municipal officers, (2) testifying at a legislative hearing at the request of the mayor, the city council, the chair of the council's legislative affairs committee or the city manager, or (3) attending a meeting of a board, commission, or committee to which the councilmember has been appointed by the mayor or the city council, will automatically be deemed to be for "official city business at the direction of the city council" and will not be counted against a city councilmember for purposes of determining the councilmember's annual compensation; and

WHEREAS, Section 4.11 (c) of the City Council Rules of Procedure provides that in addition to those absences automatically considered to be on "official city business at the direction of the city council," under Section 4.11(b) above, the city council may by resolution designate whenever a councilmember's absence is for official city business and not counted as a missed meeting for purposes of determining the councilmember's annual compensation under Chapter III, Section 4 of the Dallas City Charter; and

WHEREAS, Councilmember Tennell Atkins and Councilmember Angela Hunt participated in events as noted in Exhibit A, attached, which required them to miss city council committee meetings; and
