

August 8, 2017

WHEREAS, the city council has directed staff to prepare an approximately $1,025,000,000 million bond package for the voters' approval at the November 2017 election;

WHEREAS, city staff created a citizens' bond task force to receive input from citizens and has held community meetings on May 22, 2017 and May 25, 2017;

WHEREAS, city staff has briefed the city council on June 7, 2017 and June 21, 2017 and received feedback from the city council on the proposed bond package;

WHEREAS, city staff has incorporated citizen input and city council feedback into its proposed bond package, which also reflects staff's knowledge and expertise;

WHEREAS, to efficiently use city staff time and provide city staff with a guide for the November 2017 bond program, the city council passed Resolution No. 17-1123 on June 28, 2017;

WHEREAS, this resolution hereby amends and overrides Resolution No. 17-1123; and

WHEREAS, this resolution will not override a bond election order, and it does not create a contract with voters with respect to the provisions in this resolution; Now, Therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF DALLAS:

SECTION 1. That the city council supports issuing bonds for streets and transportation; parks and recreation; flood protection and storm drainage; library facilities; cultural and performing arts facilities; public safety facilities; City Hall and various administrative and service facilities; economic development; homeless assistance facilities; and Fair Park propositions.

SECTION 2. That the city council supports issuing approximately $1,050,000,000 in bonds for these propositions.

SECTION 3. That this resolution shall take effect immediately from and after passage in accordance with the Charter of the City of Dallas, and it is accordingly so resolved.
