For participation in any Public Facility project, the Corporation shall use an application that is based on the Office of Economic Development's Application for Incentive and adhere to the City's underwriting standards set forth in the application, as may be amended from time to time to meet the City's Financial Management Plan Standards. Furthermore, in any resolution approving the Corporation's participation in a Public Facility, the Board must find that the development of the Public Facility is in furtherance of the City of Dallas's Comprehensive Housing Policy, as amended, including its housing programs, policies, and initiatives, and must specifically state the market type in which the Public Facility will be located and the specific un-met housing need that the Public Facility will address.

Section 7.4. Chapter 20A of the Dallas City Code. Any Public Facility related to multifamily residential development must adhere to Chapter 20A of the Dallas City Code, as amended.

Section 7.5. Solicitation of Development Proposals and Third-Party Services. The Corporation shall solicit multifamily residential proposals and third-party services through an open application process using the application described above in Section 7.3. It is the policy of the Corporation that Directors and Officers conduct themselves in a manner consistent with sound business and ethical practices; that the public interest always be considered in conducting corporate business; that the appearance of impropriety be avoided to ensure and maintain public confidence in the Corporation; and that no Officer, employee, or member of the Board should have an interest, financial or otherwise, direct or indirect, or engage in any business, transaction, or professional activity or incur any obligation of any nature which is in conflict with the proper discharge of his or her duties and are not to use their position for personal gain.

ARTICLE IX INDEMNIFICATION

Section 9.1. Indemnification. A Director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation for monetary damages for any act or omission in such Director's capacity as a Director, except that this Article does not authorize the elimination or limitation of the liability of a Director to the extent the Director is found liable for: (i) a breach of a Director's duty to the Corporation; (ii) an act or omission not in good faith that constitutes a breach of duty of the Director to the Corporation or an act or omission that involves intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law; (iii) a transaction from which a Director received an improper benefit, whether or not the benefit resulted from an action taken within the scope of the Director's office; or (iv) an act or omission for which the liability of a Director is expressly provided for by an applicable statute. The foregoing elimination of liability shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights, limitations of liability, or indemnity to which a Director may be entitled under any other provision of the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, any contract or agreement, vote of Directors, principle of law, or otherwise. Any repeal or amendment of this Article shall be prospective only, and shall not adversely affect any limitation on the personal liability of a Director of the Corporation existing at the time of such repeal or amendment. In addition to the circumstances in which a Director of the Corporation is not personally liable as set forth in the foregoing provisions of this Article, a Director shall not be liable to the full extent permitted by any amendment to the Texas Business Organizations Code or the Act hereafter enacted that further eliminates or authorizes the elimination of the liability of a Director.
